

National School Lunch Program

Regina Coeli School is committed to ensuring equitable access to the National School Lunch Program for all students, including students with disabilities. No student shall be denied participation in the lunch program on the basis of disability, medical condition, dietary need, or required accommodations.

Students with disabilities will have the same opportunity to participate in the hot lunch program as their peers.

The school will provide necessary accommodations in accordance with applicable laws such as ADA and IDEA.

Medically necessary dietary modifications will be provided when supported by appropriate documentation from a licensed healthcare provider.

Cafeteria facilities will be accessible to students with mobility impairments, including wheelchair access and appropriate height.

School nutrition and support staff will receive training on disability awareness, food allergies, medical dietary needs and safe assistance practices.

Participation in the National School Lunch program will be provided in a manner that promotes dignity, independence and inclusion

This policy reflects the school's commitment to equity, accessibility, and the well-being of every student.
